Copy of Memorandum from the Government of India, Labour Department, to the Heads of Training Centres, No. TRA-491, dated the 2nd July 1942.

Subject:- Specialist Instructors - Grant of language reward to.

It is considered desirable that Specialist Instructors should have a knowledge of colloquial Hindustani so as to bring them into closer touch with trainees and enable them to give direct instruction. In order to encourage the Instructors to learn Hindustani, it has accordingly been decided to grant each instructor a reward of Rs.100/- (Rupees one hundred only) if he passes an examination in colloquial Hindustani by the end of November 1942.

2. The arrangements will be as follows :--

(1) The Secretary, Board of Examiners, Generaal Headquarters, Simla, will arrange for the necessary examination to be held by the local Urdu Boards assembled to conduct the monthly Urdu examination of military candidates at stations near the training centres where the Specialist Instructors are posted. The date and place of the examinations will be communicated to those Instructors who apply to appear at the examination.

(2) Applications to appear at the examination should be made through the Head of the training centre to the Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Labour, by the end of September 1942, at the latest.

(3) Specialist Instructors will not be required to pay any examination fee, but they will themselves have to bear the cost of engaging teachers in Hindustani. A list of qualified teachers may be obtained by intending examinees by applying to the Secretary, Board of Examiners, General Headquarters, Simla.

(4) The tests will be as follows:--

(a) Oral translation into Hindustani of short English sentences	50 marks.
(b) Oral translation into English of short Hindustani sentences	50 marks.
(c) Conversation of a simple nature on general topics and matters relating to training under the Technical Training Scheme.	100 marks.

No. 801

Thirtyfive per cent in each subject and 60 per cent in aggregate will be required to entitle the Instructors to draw the reward.

(5) The Instructors will be tntitled to draw travelling allowances at tour rates for their journeys to and from the examination centres.

3. Please arrange to supply immediately a copy of this memorandum to each Specialist Instructor posted to your centre. * spare copies are enclosed. There is no obligation on Instructors to enter the scheme, but it is hoped that as many of them as possible will take advantage of it.
